“Wildest Dreams: Imagine. Believe. Build.”

October 21 – November 25, 2007

A Life Well-Lived
November 25, 2007

God can do anything, you know—far more than you could ever imagine or guess or request in your wildest dreams! He does it not by pushing us around but by working within us, his Spirit deeply and gently within us.

Glory to God in the church!

Glory to God in the Messiah, in Jesus!

Glory down all the generations!

Glory through all millennia! Oh, yes!

Ephesians 3:20-21 (MSG)

1 Chronicles 29:26-30

Vs. 26-28

“David son of Jesse was king over all Israel. He ruled over Israel forty years – seven in Hebron and thirty-three in Jerusalem. He died at a good old age, having enjoyed long life, wealth and honor. His son Solomon succeeded him as king.”

Vs. 29-30

“As for the events of King David’s reign, from beginning to end, they are written in the records of Samuel the seer, the records of Nathan the prophet and the records of God the seer, together with the details of his reign and power, and the circumstances that surrounded him and Israel and the kingdoms of all the other lands.”

Five Lessons from David in order to have a Life Well-Lived!

(“He died at a good old age, having enjoyed long life, wealth and honor.”)

1. Have a heart for God!
2. Do not give up when you mess up!
3. Dream big and stay focused!
4. Always invest in God’s purposes!
5. Leave a legacy for God!

“For when David had served God’s purpose in his own generation, he fell asleep...”
Acts 13:36
